

Dorian Carter of OnPointe Partners Discusses Long-term Wealth Building/Commercial Real Estate with Oscar & Kiya Frazier

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, October 26, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A Veteran of the United States Air Force, Mr. Dorian L. Carter, CCIM, is President of OnPointe Partners, a Commercial Real Estate Investment firm. Mr. Carter has over 20 years of experience spanning mixed-use, retail, industrial, land development, and affordable housing, making him a triple threat – a Developer, Investor, and Mentor.

During Episode #16 of The Couplepreneurs Show, Mr. Carter dives into a discussion with the hosts Oscar and Kiya Frazier, around building wealth via commercial real estate and investing. Mr. Carter discusses commercial real estate and investing in 2021 – post the onset of the Covid -19 pandemic. He also dives into misconceptions about credit for commercial real estate buying.

When asked what drives you to share this information with the masses, Mr. Carter responded, “My goal is to affect change in underserved communities by empowering and educating individuals on wealth strategies and redevelopment initiatives.”

In the interview, Mr. Carter explains the difference between income-producing property compared to residential property. Furthermore, he explains why wealth building is a long-term game focusing on appreciation in market price and adding value with multiple revenue streams.

Mr. Carter has achieved his initial dream of creating a successful Commercial Real Estate Investment firm. Though his dreams and aspiration continue to evolve, one thing is for sure –
