We provide companies peace of mind that they have reduced the risk of infecting participants of their in-person gatherings with COVID in a HIPAA-compliant way - virtually without increasing overhead”

Jeff Miller, Chief of Technology, OfficeFLO Health Division at Entrespace

its flagship OfficeFLO® platform that was built to serve healthcare organizations, the Entrespace Group has rolled out HIPAA-compliant online forms that any business or organization can deploy to enable participants of in-person activities to securely upload their COVID vaccination cards, sign up for a waiting list (if capacity is restricted) and sign up to receive instant COVID exposure alerts (if a participant of an in-person gathering ends up testing COVID-19 positive).

The OfficeFLO® platform includes 3 easy to use forms:
1) Online HIPAA-Compliant Forms (OfficeFLO®
EntreUpload®) for companies and organizations to enable participants of in-person events to securely upload copies of their COVID personal records, such as vaccination cards, test results, etc.

2) Online forms for participants to join a waiting list for use if the demand for the in-person gathering exceeds the capacity (OfficeFLO® Sign Up & Notify). With the waiting list app, developed using the company's proprietary patented technology, when there is a cancellation, subscribers can receive a notification at their verified preferred method of contact (e.g., via email or text message) about the change in the availability, so that they have a chance to take the available spot.

3) Online forms for sending out an urgent COVID exposure alert to all participants at their verified mobile number and/or email address per their preference, if an exposure to a COVID case is discovered (OfficeFLO® Sign Up & Notify).
