“

With the Covid-19 pandemic dominating the news cycle for so long, the end of free movement - a key consequence of Brexit – has, for many, gone under the radar.”

Relocate, an independent platform for global migration, provides individuals with a centralized marketplace for relocation. As part of a limited-enrollment Ambassador Program, this LegalTech company is featuring licensed immigration practitioners within each country. For the United Kingdom, three top-tier immigration focused law firms have joined the company's soft-launch.

Featured U.K. Advisors include:
