The global sports equipment and accessory market is growing robustly and is characterized by swift adoption of newer technologies and openness to changing trends. The industry is thriving immensely on e-commerce, which is a popular retail medium nowadays that also offers consumers the benefit to compare all the available brands of sports equipment. It is a one-stop shop for all sports accessories and equipment, which in turn enhances the salability in the global sports equipment market.

Sports equipment and accessories market is highly competitive owing to many established market players in retail, e-commerce, sports stores and wholesale and many new startups joining frequently. It also faces negative competition with counterfeit sporting equipment and accessories with cheaper low quality variants.

During the forecast period, the increasing sense of health-consciousness amongst the consumers is expected to stimulate the demand for athletic equipment. Additionally, the rising trend to follow the prominent sport players will drive the accessory business.
