SACRAMENTO, CA, USA, October 28, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Representatives from the Interfaith Council of Greater Sacramento came together to celebrate a Day of Peace and Human Rights at the Church of Scientology of Sacramento.

“Sacramento, with its top ten ranking as one of the most ethnically diverse large cities in the nation, was a befitting place to host this human rights event – said the local Scientology Church’s Public Affairs Director.

Julia Allender, Director Youth for Human Rights of Sacramento

The event opened with local youth members presenting the “What Are Human Rights?” video as part of the Youth For Human Rights Campaign.

“Where, after all, do universal human rights begin? In small places, close to home – so close and so small that they cannot be seen on any maps of the world.”

Eleanor Roosevelt

Along with the current President Serene Erby of the Interfaith Council of Greater Sacramento, many faith leaders came to lend their words of encouragement at the event and featured;

- Deacon Paul Friedrich - Roman Catholic - Lady of the Assumption
- Bastor Charles de Watteville - Sacramento Family Federation for World Peace and Unification
- Chief Master Sgt. ret. Al Wilson – Christian

- Sister Joanie - Brahma Kumaris
- Rev. Rohn Walker - Scientology Capitol Mission

- Hajji Yusuf Ali Mohammad – Muslim
- Rev. Dave Lyman – Spiritual Life Center, Sacramento
- Bishop Jon Fish - Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints
- Rev. Dr. Alice Baber-Banks - Christian Fellowship Ministry
- Rev. Kay Alice Daly – Scientology Church and Interfaith Board Member

Each carried messages of Hope, Love, Peace and Understanding to the many diverse ethnic groups in attendance. Central to that message was effective actions to take in our daily lives to make that happen.

Also speaking at this event was the Exec Director of the Local (Sacramento) Chapter for Youth For Human Rights, Julia Allender.

Youth For Human Rights is a worldwide organization composed of chapters around the world with the purpose to teach youth about human rights, specifically the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and inspire them to become advocates for tolerance and peace.

Julia spoke to the importance of education and her belief that education in these 30 Human Rights is the key to raise more awareness and create a more peaceful world. She also hosts a monthly radio talk show entitled; “Let's Talk About Human Rights” with key community leaders engaged on human rights issues based out of Los Angeles.

The feedback from the event was very positive. Many commented on how wonderful the speakers were throughout the event. The next Human Rights Event at the Church of Scientology in Sacramento will be in recognition of Human Rights Day on December 10th celebrating the 73rd anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
