

M1 Legal committed to supporting investigation of Club La Costa World timeshare administration scandal

The Club La Costa (CLC) administration process is now firmly in the hands of the creditors' choice of administration firm (FRP)

LONDON, OXFORDSHIRE, UK, October 28, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BDO (whose role was officially a neutral one) seemed very reluctant to give way to the creditor's choice FRP, and an expensive legal campaign was necessary to dislodge them. BDO had not originally recognised M1 Legal's clients as creditors although this again was remedied by diligent legal actions by the M1 Legal team

Club la Costa Members' anxiety as Spanish CLC companies file for bankruptcy

The costs expended by BDO and their lawyers during this period of apparently neutral litigation amounted to approaching £400,000 with the result that the funds remaining to handover to FRP Advisory(FRP) to pick up the investigation were severely depleted. An M1 legal source opined: "It's almost as though CLC's spending was accelerated in order to leave FRP with nothing to use for their own investigations."

“

"It beggars belief when wealthy timeshare companies claim poverty in attempts to avoid paying their debts. Anyone with questions or any other timeshare claims enquiry should contact ECC's team"
Andrew Cooper CEO of ECC

The low amount of money "in the pot" left the process in urgent need of funding.

M1 Legal provides the necessary funding

M1 Legal have already footed a six figure bill to push for BDO to be dislodged and will continue their commitment by providing the support necessary in order to bring CLC to justice. FRP have appointed Mishcon De Reya as their UK lawyers in the administration, who are also very conversant with this type of investigation.

M1 Legal have pledged to fund the ongoing administration until sufficient funds are recovered to allow FRP to ensure the investigation of this administration is given the resources it needs to make meaningful realisations for the creditors.

Administration to be extended

FRP have indicated that one of their first steps will be to request a 12 month extension of the CLC administration; a request which is expected to be welcomed by the creditors. The extra time is seen as necessary to recover the money that wasn't forthcoming during the BDO administration. M1 Legal sources are "fully confident" there is an enormous amount of untapped capital and finances to be retrieved on behalf of CLC creditors

M1 Legal confident of justice

M1 Legal are handling around 1500 claims against CLC, worth tens of millions of pounds and are confident of justice.

FRP have indicated that there is a lot of investigative work to do, and M1 are expecting them to uncover significant financial and other issues in the course of their investigation with numerous sources now providing information to the administrators .

Claims against CLC still going ahead

Club La Costa and their publicity agents (RDO, KwikChex and their subsites) are broadcasting the message that compensation claims against the timeshare giant are futile, that there is no money and no chance of success.

"Clearly this is not true," says expert commentator Andrew Cooper, CEO of European Consumer

Andrew Cooper CEO

Claims. "It beggars belief when wealthy timeshare companies claim poverty in attempts to avoid paying their debts. CLC receives tens of millions a year on maintenance fees, they own vast tracts of luxury property and there are many other healthy companies within the CLC group. It is insulting to people's intelligence for them to say there is no money."

Anyone with questions about the CLC situation, or any other timeshare claims/relinquishment enquiry should contact ECC's team for a free, confidential, no obligation chat

Related links

CLC's Bankruptcy details page: <https://find-and-update.company-information.service.gov.uk/company/03123199/filing-history>

The bankruptcy number: CR-2020-004239

Club la Costa Members' anxiety as Spanish CLC companies file for bankruptcy

Successful High Court application as administrator BDO replaced, in timeshare giant Club La Costa's ongoing administration scandal

Rumours of timeshare companies hiding money and preparing to close. Time to jump ship?

Club La Costa desperate to lure back timeshare owners with 'free' accommodation week

Timeshare companies and the RDO do not want their customers seeking independent advice...

RDO under investigation

Observers bemused as RDO attempts to claim 'major Club La Costa victory' during insolvency struggles

Do you qualify for timeshare compensation? A quick guide:

Message from Andrew Cooper, CEO of European Consumer Claims (ECC)

(VIDEO) Yes you can STILL claim compensation from Club La Costa

ANFI: Is Europe's biggest timeshare resort criminally hiding assets to avoid payouts?

Mishcon de Reya website

Visit the newsroom

ECC provides timeshare claims services, expert advice and help

E: (for media enquiries): mark.jobling@ecc-eu.com

E: (for client enquiries) EUROPE: info@ecc-eu.com USA: info@europeanconsumerclaims.com

T: EUROPE: +44800 6101 512 / +44 203 6704 616. USA: 1-8777 962 010

Monday to Friday: UK timings: 9am-8pm. Saturday/Sunday closed. USA 9am -8pm EST. Sunday closed

Follow European Consumer Claims on Facebook here

Follow European Consumer Claims on Twitter here

Follow European Consumer Claims on LinkedIn here

Follow European Consumer Claims on Medium here

Follow European Consumer Claims on YouTube here

Follow European Consumer Claims on Newsdesk here

Follow Andrew Cooper (CEO of European Consumer Claims) on Twitter here

Andrew Cooper background article can be read here

European Consumer Claims (ECC) logotype

Mark Jobling

ECC

+ 1-8777 962 010

email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/554959872>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.