“Partnering with Linkup Livingston is a great opportunity for us to expand our horizons and help the community grow,” said Clint Sanchez, President at BlakSheep Creative. We're glad to be a part of this, and we look forward to seeing how they can help fix the broadband gap in Livingston Parish.”

“We do what we do, not just for financial equity, but because we believe in the local businesses and organizations that drive our community,” he continues.

“When they ask for help, we want to be able to provide it. And donating our time was a great way for us to do that.”

We're looking forward to a long-lasting relationship with Linkup Livingston, and we want you to visit their new website today!

About Link Up Livingston

The Link Up Livingston initiative aims to bridge the digital divide in Louisiana by providing broadband internet access.

This committee was formed by State Representative District 71, Buddy Mincey Jr.'s office after he witnessed first-hand what it's like not having a stable connection at home or work.
