The much anticipated Expo 2020 Dubai, the latest edition of the World's Fair, swung its doors open on 1st October.

DUBAI, UAE, October 29, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The much anticipated Expo 2020 Dubai, the latest edition of the World's Fair, swung its doors open on 1st October. For architecture connoisseurs and curious spirits alike, the show offers a unique chance to see 192 national pavilions showcasing the individual accomplishments of nations across the globe, as well as the impressive Thematic District, where the fair's themes of Sustainability, Mobility and Opportunity are explored.

Running until 31st March 2022 throughout Dubai's perfect 'winter' season, Expo 2020 Dubai promises architectural marvels, engaging and immersive activities and plenty of food for thought. Given the scope of the exhibition, visitors are recommended to allocate four to five days to exploring the must-see pavilions and attending shows. Conveniently located close to the exhibition site, Avani Ibn Battuta Dubai Hotel offers an Expo 2020 Dubai Stay Package that includes a stay in an airy Superior Room, multi-day Expo 2020 passes, and breakfast at the chic Mississippi's Pool Bar & Social Hub.

Guests can start their Expo 2020 Dubai experience by touring the Thematic District inspired by the traditional architecture of the Al Fahidi District in old Dubai, or stop by the UAE Pavilion where Spanish architect Santiago Calatrava stacked 28 carbon fibre gravity-defying "wings" to build a roof inspired by the shape of a falcon's wing. The minimalist Brazilian Pavilion uses clever projection mapping technologies to give visitors a 360-degree experience inspired by nature and its potential, providing an interesting backdrop for photo opportunities.

Titled "Poem Pavilion", the UK Pavilion displays an AI-generated poem across a cone-shaped cross-laminated timber façade — a take on AI-generated poetry in architectural form. Nature-minded guests will appreciate Singapore's plant-filled Pavilion featuring a "three-dimensional garden", as well as the Dutch Pavilion by V8 Architects, who created 'a biotope in the desert, with a unique sensory experience'.

Boasting a direct metro link, Avani Ibn Battuta Dubai offers guests the convenience of reaching the Expo 2020 site by metro, with each ride costing Euro 1.8 and taking around 25 minutes. A taxi will cost around Euro 12 one way.
