

Rising Pop Artist Lets Listeners Open Up Their wild Side with New Single: Eli Liberty to Release “Drippy”

Treating music as a conduit for emotions rarely allowed to be felt freely, Eli Liberty's new single “Drippy” will help listeners get in touch with raw feelings.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, November 2, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Letting listeners embrace their hyper active sexual side, Eli Liberty's new single “Drippy” is all about letting your emotions go free while experiencing the sights and sounds of the music. With an upbeat and poppy composition, the new track is sure to make all listeners sway away along to its beat while they listen to the melodic rhythms and take in the soulful lyricism. The song is further backed up by stirring songwriting encouraging listeners to be themselves, and to be carefree in their lives, creating a moment for them where they can truly be themselves.

Eli Liberty - Drippy

Eli Liberty's musical journey has always led him to paths where he has been able to help others along the way. In this manner, he has always worked to build spaces where people can be themselves, “Drippy” is no exception to this rule as he aims to create a space through the track where men of black descent, and specifically LGBTQ black men feel free enough to express their raw urges. Shedding light on a feat that the world rarely allows for marginalized factions to achieve, Eli Liberty hopes for his music to be a catalyst in spurring change.

As a musician, Eli Liberty works to use the connective power of music to bring people together on a grand scale, as he hopes that his music allows for many people to empathize. Feeling that music is the best medium for this, Eli has toiled to connect with everyone using the musical world.

“Drippy” is available for streaming and download on Spotify and YouTube. For further updates from Eli Liberty follow him on his socials at Instagram, and Twitter. The artist is also available to be contacted for interviews, collaborations and bookings.
