conditions. Those who are serious about their health take steps to consistently remain fit. We have found that more and more of our members enjoy adding an IV drip to their monthly routine. The sum of these small consistent actions over time can yield amazing results."

One new member, Stefani, said, "All my questions were answered well. I felt I was in good hands. Melanie was informative and nurturing! I'm definitely buying a membership. I feel really good!!" She left this five-star review on Google for all to see.

Many people do not realize that vitamin deficiencies may be at the root of all their health problems. Vitamin deficiencies can be associated with fatigue, dizziness, muscle weakness, immune problems, chronic pain, decreased mood, and more. According to many studies, the vast majority (92%) of Americans are deficient in at least one vitamin. However, most don't realize that vitamin deficiencies cannot be fixed overnight. Oral supplements can take months or years to correct these levels. IV hydration, while not an immediate fix, allows one's body to absorb 100% of the nutrients, rather than the fraction that is received from supplements.

"One IV cannot adequately correct years of vitamin deficiency," said Cannon. "Our members find that regular attention makes a significant difference. That's why we offer a variety of different membership levels to accommodate these needs. Consistent IV hydration can help nutrient levels to stabilize over time and remain in the optimal range."

Here are just several of the many benefits of IV treatments:

- Intravenously is the most effective way to absorb vitamins and nutrients.
- Feel better immediately after the session – an effect that is enhanced with consistent treatments. Patients will likely feel clear-minded, energized, and revitalized.
- It's quick. IV therapy can be done on a lunch break or between meetings for a little boost.
- It can be used as part of a treatment plan for many chronic conditions like fatigue, pain, depression, migraines, and others.
- It's a powerful immune booster – no winter sickness around here thanks!
- It's deeply hydrating, working at a cellular level.
- It's customizable based on your symptoms.
- It actually works.
