Eric Gang will be discussing "Proving VA Disability Compensation Eligibility for Camp Lejeune Veterans with Nonpresumptive Diseases"

NJ, UNITED STATES, November 8, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Eric Gang, Founding Partner at Gang & Associates, LLC, will be presenting at the New Jersey State Bar Association on November 11, 2021, at 6 PM at the NJ Law Center in New Brunswick, NJ.

He will be discussing "Proving VA Disability Compensation Eligibility for Camp Lejeune Veterans with Nonpresumptive Diseases," the topic of an upcoming article in the New Jersey Lawyer Magazine.

From the 1950s to the 1980s, Marines living at Camp Lejeune in Jacksonville, North Carolina, were exposed to volatile organic compounds in the drinking water. The exposure to these chemicals has caused a host of health problems in the veterans who were exposed. The Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry ("ATSDR") in 2017 found scientific evidence to support causation for seven conditions: cardiac defects, kidney cancer, non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, bladder cancer, leukemia, and liver cancer.

The lecture will address these issues and focus on ways to service connect diseases that have not been shown to be associated with exposure to the volatile compounds in the Camp Lejeune water. In general, the focus in these cases should be on:

Strong evidence of dose-response relationship.

The number of statistically significant findings.

The degree to which the relevant studies controlled for risk factors like age would potentially satisfy the requirements for service connection without regard to other independent risk factors.
