-- Our Family Plays Games (OFPG) will celebrate their 100th episode with a massive board game giveaway on November 14, 2021. OFPG is an African-American family, consisting of husband, wife, and son trio - Miklos, Starla and their teenaged son, Grant. This family has been taking the board game hobby by storm with their unique and entertaining take on how to make the “white male dominated” hobby more diverse and inclusive for people of color and families. In their YouTube videos they showcase board games, conduct interviews with industry professionals, talk about what’s happening in the hobby and discuss the importance of diversity and inclusion. Their videos are informative and always entertaining. From day one, Our Family Plays Games has been on a mission to promote their love for board games and prove that regardless of race, creed, color, sexual orientation or age, the modern board game hobby is for everyone and they want everyone to feel welcome to participate in this hobby.
