

(Video) MEK Resistance Units in Iran Distribute Anti-Regime Slogans in Cities, Marking Cyrus the Great Day

On October 28th, 2016, thousands of Iranians went to Pasargadae to pay tribute to Cyrus the Great and many ended up protesting against the Iranian regime.

PARIS, FRANCE, November 3, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Iran's regime increasingly fears crises at home undermining its existence. This fear was evident last week as people were preparing to gather in Pasargadae, near Shiraz, southern Iran, the site of the tomb of Cyrus the Great<sup>1</sup> to celebrate the anniversary of announcing his declaration known as the Cyrus Cylinder on 29 October.

(NCRI) and (PMOI / MEK Iran): October 29, 2021 — The internal network of the Iranian opposition movement PMOI/MEK inside Iran has organized in recent days a series of activities marking Cyrus the Great Day.

Unsurprisingly, the regime took every measure to prevent the gathering of Iranians in Pasargadae to commemorate Cyrus the Great who wrote the world's first charter of human rights. Iran's regime has been condemned by the United Nations year after year for human rights abuses including the execution of minors and suppression of ethnic and religious minorities. Its bleak record includes the execution of 30,000 political prisoners in 1988.
