Committed to promoting diversity, inclusion and sustainability, Kornit

Digital's "Kornit Fashion Week LA" is currently taking place from November 2 to 5, 2021, showcasing the latest collections of twenty-two internationally acclaimed as well as progressive and independent fashion designers and brands including Ungaro, threeASFOUR, Vivi Bellaish, Kobi Halperin, Shai Shalom, Aliona Kononova, NAOT, Asher Levine, Dreu Beckemberg, Georgine Studio, Lakrisbrand, Bishme Cromartie, Oliver Tolentino, Jen Rade, Guvanch and Jolleson. The invitation-only shows are being held at one event space in the historic Pacific Stock Exchange Building on 618 South Spring Street featuring an age- and size-inclusive lineup of diverse models from different backgrounds while also unveiling original pieces demonstrating Kornit's revolutionary digital printing technologies. Hair and make-up provided by Paul Mitchell Pasadena and CAO Cosmetics, respectively.

"For me, fashion is about people not just clothes. The most important thing for me is changing what the ideal definition of beauty is. I'm inspired by the diversity of the human race especially women and want to show people that beauty is not just one type. People of all ages, shapes, genders, and races are beautiful and should be celebrated." Motty Reif - Founder and Producer of Kornit Fashion Week
