

Propark Mobility and Way.com Launch Innovative Parking Partnership

Both pioneers in the industry, the companies have joined forces to provide parking solutions across the United States.

FREMONT, CA, UNITED STATES,
November 10, 2021 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Super auto app Way.com has announced that it has expanded its partnership with Propark Mobility to provide innovative parking solutions across the United States.

“Our partnership with Way.com has already provided our guests across the country with a convenient way of paying for and reserving a parking space from the comfort of their home or office,” explained John Schmid, Propark’s Chief Executive Officer. “As our relationship has evolved, we’re looking at blazing new trails, specifically with the growing consumer need for specialized parking for electric vehicles.”

Both pioneers in the parking industry, the two companies began working together in 2015. The expansion of the partnership will encompass all of Propark Mobility’s assets across the nation, with a specialized focus on EV charging station parking reservations, driven by Way.com’s industry-leading reservations engine and technology platform.

“With their tech-forward approach in finding cost-effective solutions for their customers, we felt there was great synergy with Propark, and have really enjoyed a seamless relationship with the team.” said Bhumi Bhutani, Cofounder of Way.com. “We’re looking forward to the next phase of the partnership.”
