

Designed Conviction publishers presents: "The Convicted Entrepreneur" by Taylor Tom

This well-written How to book gives the aspiring entrepreneur a head start on the competition.

OLYMPIA, WA, UNITED STATES, November 4, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sharing inspiration from his journey is a surprising story that will draw you in from the beginning as there is a forward—written by the founder of Dave's killer bread, Dave Dahl himself. This man built a successful bread company later sold for nearly 300 million dollars. The book also has a preface written by Chris Wilson, author of "The Master Plan."

Chris's journey from life in prison to a life of success is very much in line with Taylor Tom's journey. And they all three have a common thread, although coming from entirely different backgrounds—long terms of incarceration in America's prison systems. Even though Taylor is currently incarcerated and serving a life sentence, it is remarkable what he has accomplished—starting an independent magazine that gets distributed nationally and online, together with his wife, Cecilia. They have been building a social enterprise that has already positively impacted many lives. Taylor shares his blueprint to success; "The Convicted Entrepreneur" is just the first in "The Convicted Series," the next being "The Convicted Song Writer". After Writing songs with
