“Nolij is thrilled to have won the 2021 Moxie Award in the GovCon category,” said Ashley Mehta, Chairwoman, CEO, and President of Nolij Consulting. “I want to congratulate the Nolij team for their dedication and hard work. We are committed to delivering solutions that consistently redefine the boundaries of Health IT in an effort to keep our clients future-ready at all times. This recognition cements our status as one of the boldest organizations in the area who clients can always count on for out-of-the-box ideas.”

Nolij has achieved a number of key successes over the past year, including:

- The launch of its new, custom-built AI platform to advance business intelligence at the government agency level and harness various automation solutions to drive expanded outcomes; and
- Completion of ten key partnerships over 2021 to expand its technical capabilities and deliver on its future-ready commitment to clients.

Winners were recently announced at the 2021 Moxie Award Ceremony and Dinner Celebration on October 13th at The Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Tysons Corner. “We hosted more than 300 of D.C.’s boldest in business to celebrate the 2021 Moxie Award winners,” said Katie Jordan, Moxie Award chair. “This year’s winners truly represent the spirit of Moxie and we are excited to help tell the stories of how they have navigated the past year,” Jordan continued. A complete list of winners can be found here.

Organizations are recognized for having demonstrated boldness and innovation as an integral part of their growth strategy. The winning organizations not only help make the D.C. metro area a great place to do business, but also an incredible place to live, thrive and play.
