The owners, Jamie Michael Hemmings and Jilea Hemmings began their journey into the food industry after their oldest son was diagnosed with Autism. They believe that everyone deserves access to healthy food options. Getting access to healthier options is made easier through their fully autonomous shopping experience and robotic delivery.

Nourish + Bloom is re-envisioning the traditional corner store by focusing on the personal connections of the neighborhood retailer while infusing sustainability, and autonomous checkout technology. Food and personal care items are curated with the highest standards in mind. Highest priority is given to local brands to reduce our carbon footprint.

Nourish + Bloom offers locally sourced craft items, such as produce, meats, baked goods, dairy and prepared meals, alongside everyday grocery items with no checkout. The benefit of autonomous shopping, vending, and robotic delivery means you have 24/7/365 access to real food and environmentally friendly products anytime.

Anchored in the Nourish + Bloom market is the bistro offering freshly prepared breakfast, lunch and dinner items including sandwiches, salads and healthy rice bowls. All products provided at Nourish and Bloom Markets are made with the highest quality ingredients that are minimally processed. There are No GMO's or High Fructose Corn Syrup included in any products.

The Nourish + Bloom Market will offer uniquely curated products and a wide assortment of premium food and personal care products. They will also offer a fresh, prepared foods menu with the finest ingredients.
