

HRS Partners with Virbela to Provide Virtual World Technology to $200+ Billion Enterprise Market

The future of work reimagined by HRS & Virbela through what many are calling the next Industrial revolution

BRISBANE, AUSTRALIA, November 5, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- HRS, an Australian-based technology distributor and owner of Metaverse Media, today announced an enterprise partnership that will see the global deployment of Virbela, a virtual world platform that's redefining the future of business, events and education. According to Statista, the enterprise market will reach $296 Billion USD by 2024 (VR/AR market size).

Virbela's technology is helping organizations around the world adapt to a remote and hybrid future. Through its virtual world and immersive 3D spaces, organizations can replicate their physical brick and offices, buildings, campuses or events to create a sense of community online. Including the option of using desktop browsers or a VR headset.

Founder and CEO of HRS, Luke Horsfall, said "We are delighted to partner with Virbela. They inspire us with their vision and are a wonderful group of people to work with. HRS will continue to deliver specialized guidance to large enterprises about the possibilities of immersive reality and the metaverse industry. The virtualisation of corporate offices, board rooms, training facilities, auditoriums, expo and conference halls for group gatherings will forever change the way large numbers of people can operate and engage remotely. We believe the values of both companies are perfectly aligned and we know that together we can drive incredible global transformation that will fundamentally add value to people's lives.

Virbela's virtual worlds bring people together to work, learn, meet, and train - from anywhere.
