

CAPE NOME - NOW ON AUDIBLE

THE ALASKAN ADVENTURES OF PERCY HOPE

PARK RIDGE, NEW JERSEY, USA, November 5, 2021
/EINPresswire.com/ -- It's 1898, and one of history's most abundant gold discoveries has shaken awake the desolate city of Cape Nome, Alaska. This monumental find by John Brynteson, Jafet Lindeberg, and Erik Lindblom earns them the moniker of the Three Lucky Swedes.....welcome to Neil Perry Gordon's new historical fiction Audible release, CAPE NOME [November 1st, 2021].

News of their good fortune spreads swiftly, and by the summer of 1900, tens of thousands of dreamers trek over land and by sea to the mines surrounding Anvil Creek and upon the Bering Sea beaches, where gold deposits pepper the soft sands.

Cape Nome chronicles the continuing adventures of Percy Hope, following his exploits two years earlier in Hope City. Percy, now a journalist for William Randolph Hearst's San Francisco Examiner, is sent on assignment to Nome to report on the next great stampede.

Along the way, Percy encounters and befriends the legendary gunman Wyatt Earp and his spirited wife, Josephine, as well as an assemblage of amusing, disarming, and sinister characters, including a sea monster known as the Qalupalik.

“

The way the author blends historical fact and fictional escapade is brilliant.”
