

Omita launches the world's first YouTube Play Game, "YouTube Ice Cream Shop Game," where visitors can play the game

TOKYO, JAPAN, November 9, 2021
/EINPresswire.com/ -- YouTuber Omita created a YouTube Game that users can play in a virtual world. Then on November 6, 2021, Omita opened the world's first YouTube Play Game: "YouTube Ice Cream Shop Game."

It's now an exciting topic of news the world over.

In the fun content of this game, the player can become an ice cream shop employee and serve customers, trying not to drop the ice cream.

The appearance of the game is quite fashionable.

Stylish, adorable men and women serve ice cream, occasionally dropping it, carrying drinks on silver tableware, and sitting in chairs for rest while attending customers. They look comical and lovely.

As the game level goes up, the shop gets more hectic, and the crew accelerates the speed of carrying ice cream to the clients, their jobs adding to the difficulty.

Because the game unfurls on YouTube, you can enjoy it in a safe and secure environment.

The world's first YouTube Play Game has turned into a passionate topic of news and other media worldwide, gaining popularity because it makes you feel like a male and female clerk working at an ice cream shop. It inspires your spirit and stimulates your heart.
