In the first deployment of its kind for an MGA licensed business, any of the 300 million plus crypto wallet holders around the world can now make compliant deposits in the fully regulated poker application Pokio, with their preferred wallet and cryptocurrency. ForumPay technology instantly converts the crypto to fiat at the best available execution rate for deposit into the player's account with the funds available for immediate play.

This marks a major milestone for the MGA regulated iGaming space, providing players with a simple, transparent and easy method to transact and enabling a secure risk free and efficient payment method for iGaming

Facilitating crypto payments in the iGaming space has major benefits, such as amplifying the player base, fraud protection through instant verification of funds, and paving the way for the mass adoption of cryptocurrency in a fully compliant environment.

ForumPay is providing the first fully compliant crypto payments solution for MGA licensed gaming operators and their players in partnership with ZBX, a Class 4 VFA Service Provider with the MFSA (Malta Financial Services Authority).

Josh Tate, CEO and co-founder of ForumPay said, “We are proud that our fully compliant and wallet agnostic crypto payments technology is connecting Pokio and Malta's gaming industry to one of the fastest growing consumer segments in the world. Studies show that crypto consumers spend 2x AOV of that of a typical credit card consumer and 40% are in fact new customers.”
