"It's all about luxury. Club Nine Pets will handcraft only the best ergonomic and 'clean' bed for the comfort and beauty your pet baby deserves. Your furnishings are special, and your dog's bed shouldn't be an exception. After all, our dogs are a big part of who we are. Lusso Orthopedic dog bed from Urban Modern Collection

In addition to the Urban Modern collection, Club Nine Pets is proud to recommend its décor collections, including Traditional, Metro, Soho and Mid-Century. Pet parents can choose exclusive designer fabrics from solids, patterns, shaggy, micro-velvet and faux leather. Fashionable, family and pet-friendly fabrics are built to handle whatever life sends your way. The fabrics and materials have no PFAS and are completely durable, even when your dog baby is overdue for his or her pedicure.

The elegant design is not the only modern luxury, as the royal dog will enjoy a true, enhanced, orthopedic sleep experience. The Heliopedic® TRUE orthopedic foam keeps your special companion comfortable and serves as preventative maintenance that delays the onset of osteoarthritis.

Club Nine Pets beds provide four-legged family members a gorgeous, furniture-quality bed where they will peacefully doggie-dream. The beds provide special companions with advanced sleep support, resulting in years of better health, mobility and stair climbing. The premium luxury orthopedic materials reduce stress on joints by evenly distributing and balancing a dog's weight to help them feel more rested and energetic to enjoy eating brunch on the yacht, a day of shopping or even jetting to Cannes. This is the best bed for a fur baby with a full social schedule.

All Club Nine advanced orthopedic designer pet furnishings are crafted with love and perfection in the USA.
