

Cabo Platinum Expected to Offer New Super Yacht Just in Time for the Holidays

The 108-foot Neoprene made by Mangusta is expected to arrive in Los Cabos in December

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, November 15, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cabo Platinum, an exclusive full-service accommodation company in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, announces the arrival of a luxurious new addition to its fleet of charter yachts. The Neoprene, a 108-foot super yacht made by Mangusta, is expected to set sail in Cabo San Lucas in December and will be one of the most luxurious, accommodating, and stylish yachts to charter in the Baja.

The exterior portion of this yacht was designed by an Italia studio and naval architect to maximize the comfort of guests. The sleek and sophisticated yacht boasts four contemporary staterooms, specifically designed for luxury and an abundant amount of comfortable living space for large groups of up to 10 guests.

Guests of this yacht rental in Cabo San Lucas, which is redefining what luxury means, will enjoy a premium open bar, including an award-winning specialty tequila, to complement a gourmet dining experience with highly trained private chef Javier Tipia. Tipia spent several years in NickSan, a world-renowned Japanese restaurant learning to cook up
