

LocalBitcoins' Mobile App Now on iOS

The popular Bitcoin trading app and wallet is now available on iOS devices.

HELSINKI, UUSIMAA, FINLAND, November 12, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, just three weeks after its mobile application launched for Android users, LocalBitcoins, the world's leading peer-to-peer Bitcoin marketplace has announced the release of its app on iOS. The application, already downloaded by thousands of users on Android, is now available worldwide for iOS users too.

"Since launching the app for Android, we have seen thousands of new users", shared Jukka Blomberg, LocalBitcoins' Chief Marketing Officer. "The response to our mobile app so far has reached beyond what we anticipated. The app was released just weeks ago for Android users and its reviews already speak for themselves."

Key features on the LocalBitcoins app include:

Buy and sell Bitcoin everywhere in an easy, fast and secure way

Over 170+ countries supported

Almost all global currencies supported

Over 100 different payment methods supported

Bitcoin wallet free of charge

High security along with biometric and two-factor authentication

Low fees: No deposit fees, no transaction fees between users. A 1% escrow fee from advertisers and a withdrawal fee always based on Bitcoin blockchain fees.

Fast and localized customer support: 24/7 customer support in 10+ languages

"During 2020 LocalBitcoins welcomed 1.7 million new customers from 189 countries - most using mobile devices", shared Jukka Blomberg, LocalBitcoins' Chief Marketing Officer. "Our new mobile app shows our commitment to our global userbase and enforces LocalBitcoins' founding idea of Bringing Bitcoin Everywhere.”
