MEK released the names of 29 more

On the eve of the nationwide uprising’s second anniversary in November 2019, the People’s Mojahedin of Iran (PMOI / MEK Iran) released the names of 29 more martyrs. In Tehran, Karaj, Mallard, Shahriar, Qods, Nasimshahr, Isfahan, Kermanshah, Shiraz, Mahshahr, Andimeshk, Eslamshahr, and Meshkinshahr, these fallen heroes were martyred.

The MEK had previously publicized the names of 828 martyrs. On November 17, Khamenei made the criminal order public, calling on the Revolutionary Guards and repressive forces to “carry out their responsibilities firmly.” Khamenei had ordered the shooting of protesters at the start of the movement. “Who is behind the setting of things on fire, destruction, clashes, and fomenting insecurity?" he had asked.

They must comprehend, and most people do. They must keep their distance from these behaviors. This is my command, and all officials in the government must carry it out in accordance with their responsibilities."

MEK resistance units honor the memory of the martyrs killed during the protests by installing their photos, spreading messages of President-elect of the National Council of Resistance of Iran (NCRI) Maryam Rajavi and Iranian Resistance leader Massoud Rajavi, and also writing slogans in public places in Iran.
