

Can the fun, family Christmas movie “The Farmer and The Belle: SAVING SANTALAND” Save Small-Town Theaters? Opens Nov 19.

Sing "We Wish You A Merry Christmas" w- John Schneider during end credits to Win Bracelet from the Movie. Christmas shopping & Caroling to accompany the film.

The award-winning film "The Farmer and the Belle: Saving Santaland" is directed by Wes Llewellyn and inspired by the lead actors,' Jim E. Chandler (www.imdb.me/jimechandler) and Jenn Gotzon's (www.imdb.me/jenngotzon), true love story. The story follows Belle Winters (Gotzon), a tired New York City-based supermodel who's worried about aging out of the industry. One evening in her apartment, Belle remembers a charm bracelet with Biblical beauty affirmations that her grandmother (Sandra Lafferty, Oscar-nom'd, Walk The Line) gave her when she was a child. Belle no longer has the bracelet but thinks it might be at Santaland, a Christmas farm where she played in her youth. Desperate to find the bracelet, Belle sets out to find it and finds herself in the process. From a horse in pink pajamas to wrestling pigs with Santa hats, this family, Christmas comedy movie is hilarious, yet a heartwarming romantic comedy inspiring #InnerBeauty for all-ages. (TV-G).
