About EV Electra

EV Electra is an automotive manufacturing company known for their Quds cars; (Capital, Rise, Roadster, and Nostrum), with offices in Lebanon, Germany, Canada and as of today in the Netherlands. From the beginning on, the company has committed itself to building battery driven electric vehicles with zero emissions in order to contribute to a cleaner environment. Focused on meaning something to the local community it drove the team to establish in Lebanon its prime manufacturing and research facility. This geographic commitment can be seen as a supportive extension of EV Electra's mission to grow but not forget its corporate responsibility. Furthermore, the company is committed to plant ten trees for every car sold in local municipalities in conjunction with its production facilities.
