

Now out for the holidays: Cheers From Heaven

A stunning new book by author Mary Elizabeth Jackson and Grammy Award Nominee, Thornton Cline

HENDERSONVILLE, TENNESSEE, UNITED STATES, November 15, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Released and published by Tuscany Bay Books. The book is available worldwide in print across all platforms.

Five friends discover they are feeling uneasy emotions about a former classmate, Drew, who suddenly passed away from a dreadful disease. Each of them had mistreated him in their own way and style. Guilt soon overtakes the students, and they are guided by their teacher to visit Drew's parents and confess their wrongdoings.

During their visit, they are entrusted with Drew's secret locked box which he left behind. What's inside sets the students on a life-changing journey. Drew has left these students with some unexpected notes that unites them in a way they never imagined.

They are led to grow in maturity and emotionally, beyond who they once were. The insights gained inspire not only these students to accept others and their differences but leads the whole school to follow. The mysteries continue till the very end with a final message from Drew that leaves everyone wondering can you really send Cheers from Heaven.
