Pinnacle Search and Rescue (Cajun Navy 2016), a Louisiana-based non-profit search and rescue organization, was awarded a $50,000 grant from the Albertson's Foundation. The funds will be used to replenish funds spent during previous hurricanes to help get disaster victims back on their feet. The grant will be used to purchase food and other necessities for disaster victims, including medicines.

The funds will also be used to replenish the organization's existing inventory of supplies distributed at their warehouse and for a refrigerated trailer, which will help transport medicine safely before, during, and after the disaster strikes.

Pinnacle Search and Rescue (Cajun Navy 2016) plans to have the trailer wrapped with their logo, as well as the Albertson's Foundation logo.
