

Real Estate Market Growing at a CAGR of 2.8% to Reach $8,662.2 Billion by 2026 | By Property, Business

Growth in construction industry is one of the major contributors to the real estate market.

PORTLAND, OR, UNITED STATES, November 18, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The real estate market has witnessed significant growth over the past decade, owing to rise in investment in construction industry especially in the Asia-Pacific region. A number of players are expanding their business around the globe, owing to increased customer base, enhanced effective operations, and expanded geographical reach.

The global real estate market size was valued at $6.8 trillion in 2018 and is projected to reach $8.6 trillion by 2026, growing at a CAGR of 2.8% from 2019 to 2026.

The real estate companies are focusing on business expansion and new projects as a strategy to increase their real estate market share. For instance, in July 2019, CBRE Group, Inc., a U.S.-based commercial real estate investment firm acquired shares of UK-based Telford Homes Plc. The acquisition aims to expand footprints in the UK and Europe. Similarly, Life House, a vertically integrated hotel company has secured around $100 million in Blue Flag Partners for its business expansion through the acquisition of additional hotels.

Furthermore, growth in urbanization and population drives the commercial and industrial sector, which in turn is expected to propel the demand for real estate in the coming years. Currently, by business, in 2018, the sales segment has garnered significant market share, owing to the expansion of the infrastructure sector in developing regions. The growth is mainly because of the growth in the demand for various properties such as residential, commercial, and industrial.
