

Mbanq Labs Announces Best Path to Launch Banking FinTech or Credit Union in USA

Creating a new banking FinTech or Credit Union in the United States becomes easier thanks to Mbanq Labs.

SAN FRANCISCO, USA, November 18, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Entrepreneurs and teams who wish to succeed with a digital banking startup or launch a new Credit Union in the USA can take advantage of ready-made digital banking technology as well as regulatory, fundraising and marketing support, thanks to Mbanq Labs, a leading digital banking FinTech accelerator.

Speaking at Singapore's FinTech Festival, Daniel Ong, Mbanq Labs Accelerator Manager, said, "Creating a challenger bank or innovative Credit

Union has never been easier. Three cohorts of FinTech startups have already benefited from Mbanq Labs Accelerator, which has expanded globally from its initial focus in Southeast Asia. The next phase of our development will include helping FinTech entrepreneurs who want to build and market financial services in US markets.

"The size of the economy in the United States means it is full of opportunities for FinTech entrepreneurs who want to maximize the reach of modern digital banking technology and Mbanq Labs will help them do just that."

Mbanq Labs' 4th cohort will begin in early 2022 and will be run almost entirely online. Participants who would benefit most are new or existing digital banks, Fintechs and Credit Unions and startups who want to set up in the USA, who are already operating in the USA or who wish to expand into US markets.
