daily lives and re-connecting to what is important to us, to what makes us tick. The pandemic experience has challenged every thread of our beings, and during our many lockdown conversations, my husband Don and I had the idea to create an event that would embody a full-on reconnection, to ourselves, to others, to nature and to something I think most of us have missed, travel!" Said Leticia Latino – van Splunteren Co-Founder of Back2Basics Journeys, LLC

"We have designed this all-inclusive event with the intention to foster inspired conversations, genuine connections and soul-boosting moments, in one of the most historic, culturally rich and breathtakingly beautiful locations one can wish for, the island of Sicily. Castello Tafuri is a unique location, and we are thrilled that we will have exclusive use of the facilities during the time we will be there. Sicily can be intimidating for tourists, part of its beauty is the fact that in many ways is still underdeveloped, it has its own dialect and while it is Italy, in many aspects it is quite different. To me is home, and that's why I know that what we have put together will allow the guests to have a truly magical experience, because it intersects inspiration, connection, exploration, relaxation, and fun. A true Back2Basics Experience" she added.

"We look forward to sharing with a group of like-minded people this inspirational experience in Sicily. Knowing the demands that life and our careers put on us and the sacrifices we make to live up to all the expectations, it is only a matter of time before many of us start wondering if we could - or should - try to do things differently, that there must be another way, or in any case, pursue a more balanced life. If anything, COVID accelerated this process. We have seen across the globe signs of an awakening of sorts. This Back2Basics experience will provide an environment conducive to reflecting on our beliefs, about how to live our lives. I think We all learned a lot about ourselves during the pandemic and Carley's and Paul's sessions are aimed at helping us making life adjustments geared to live more authentically and aligned with our mission and our sense of purpose and meaning." said Don van Splunteren, Co-founder of Back2Basics Journeys, LLC
