Technologies, LLC (VoDaVi) has been awarded a multi-year contract with the Massachusetts Higher Education Consortium (MHEC). As of October 1, VoDaVi has been revalidated as an official supplier on the MC13-F05 Technology Contract. This allows VoDaVi to expand the offerings and solutions it currently provides to all MHEC members and faculty.

"We are thrilled to be awarded once more as an authorized supplier on MHEC's MC13-F05 Technology Contract. VoDaVi engineers have a long history of assisting Government and Education entities to reach their full potential. The VoDaVi team is looking forward to include our new offerings and providing our best-in-class solutions and services to MHEC and its members in the New England area," Ashley McGough, Vice President of Operations commented, "The expanded award is an important win for VoDaVi. As a small Women-owned Business Enterprise (WBE), VoDaVi is proud of its service to the higher education community and truly values working collaboratively with our strategic partners to ensure technology delivers the impact and educational outcomes desired by our constituents."

Although this contract is referred to as the Massachusetts Higher Education Consortium it is available as a technology procurement vehicle to all MHEC members throughout New England. MHEC members are in Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, and Rhode Island. The membership includes non-profit public and private institutions of higher education, technical, charter and vocational schools, municipalities including elementary and secondary schools, preparatory schools, and educational non-profit organizations.

We are thrilled to be awarded once more as an authorized supplier on MHEC's F05 Technology Contract, our engineers have a long history assisting Gov-Ed entities to reach their full potential. "

Ashley McGough, Vice President of Operations

The additional offerings allowed under this contract will allow VoDaVi to bring our educational offerings and service offerings to over eight hundred & fifty (850) educational institutions and government agencies who are members of MHEC throughout New England.

VoDaVi has a resolute customer success team devoted to finding the best solutions for our clients. With over a decade of experience within the education sector, VoDaVi has a unique advantage when it comes to providing high end services to New England educators, administrators, and support staff.

This contract allows VoDaVi to offer the following exceptional technology brands: Cisco, HP Enterprise, Aruba, HP Inc., SonicWall, Dell, Grandstream, APC, Jabra, Microsoft, Alcatel-Lucent Enterprise, Poly, Quest, Turing Video, and VoDaVi Technologies full catalog of educational offerings at cost-effective price points that will allow MHEC members to enhance their technology spend.

About Massachusetts Higher Education Consortium (MHEC)

Massachusetts Higher Education Consortium (MHEC) was formed in 1977 and was established by M.G.L. Ch. 15a, Sec 24A to create efficiencies in the State College and University procurement processes by leveraging purchasing volume to negotiate better prices. The MHEC Bid, Award, and Contract process follows Public Bidding Laws, Rules and Regulations. As a premier contracting group, all current MHEC contracts can be adopted by Members without the additional invitation for bid (IFB) process work needing to be done before contract use.

Today the MHEC has expanded its membership to include non-profit public and private institutions of higher education, technical, charter and vocational schools, municipalities including elementary and secondary schools, preparatory schools, and educational non-profit organizations located within New England.
