

Golden State Film Festival announces 2022 Dates and Venue

Los Angeles-based independent film festival, Golden State Film Festival, takes the 2022 edition of the event to the TCL Chinese Theatres

HOLLYWOOD, CA, USA, November 22, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The organizers of the annual independent festival, led by the duo of Jon Gursha and Peter Greene have stated that the Golden State Film Festival 2022 will be held at the TCL Chinese 6 Theatres February 25 to March 3rd 2022. The event will be screening hundreds of independent films from around the world in Hollywood. The move is in line with the commitment of the film festival to create an opportunity for emerging independent filmmakers across the globe to showcase their talents to audiences in Hollywood.

The independent film market remains a major part of the global movie industry, and many independent filmmakers strive to reach their target audience. “The Golden State Film Festival consistently promotes quality independent films to diverse audiences and supports independent filmmakers from around the world”, said Jon Gursha, Festival Director.

The 2021 Golden State Film Festival was held on ShortsDaily Roku Channel due to the Covid-19 pandemic. However, the 2022 edition of the festival will be an in-person event at the TCL Chinese 6 Theatres. The Golden State Film Festival has become increasingly popular in recent times highlighting local and international filmmakers in high-quality cinematic screening environment. The event will also feature exciting activities for attendees, including an opening night kick-off party and a red-carpet awards ceremony.
