“The joint work is now being executed and has not finished yet. We take this break to express our acknowledgment for OCHO SUR’s outstanding cooperation”, declared the Regional Health Director of Ucayali. “We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate this private company (Ocho Sur) for its concern about the population that surround its operations and for its own workers as well.”

Afterwards Salas Suárez delivered an Acknowledgment Diploma to OCHO SUR for “its valuable cooperation with DIRESA for Covid-19 pandemic control in the native communities of the district of Nueva Requena, as well as for the comprehensive health assessment and protection of the company’s own workers.”

OCHO SUR Chief Executive Officer, Michael Spoor, received the diploma, thanked DIRESA for the work that the dedicated team of DIRESA do for the people of the region and for the acknowledgment of the contribution that OCHO SUR makes to this life saving work in the outlying communities of the region. He then emphasized OCHO SUR's corporate commitment to improving the wellbeing and quality of life of the people in the 23 neighboring communities and to continue to work in cooperation with the government authorities for the protection of their health.

The senior officer remarked that the Company, with its more than 1,800 workers, reaffirms its commitment to work with the Ucayali Regional Government, in its efforts to combat spread and the impacts of Covid-19.

Ocho Sur was publicly recognized by Diresa

Moreover, Michael Spoor gave thanks to Diresa for its acknowledgment of OCHO SUR's outstanding management of Covid-19 with the company's own workers, in compliance with all the bio-safety protocols required by national health authorities.
