Trends In The Global Land-based Defense Equipment Market

CornerShot rifles are increasingly being used in the defense industry. CornerShot weapons have steel hinge that allows the gun's frame to bend around the corner to attack target without exposing themselves. These rifles help shooters to navigate around corners via a high-resolution camera and LCD monitor. The corner shot rifles are widely used inside armored vehicles and tanks, on a turret up top, which will allow for a full 360-degree field cover while the triggerman remained safely inside the vehicle. The weapon is accurate and effective to 100 to 200 meters depending on the type weapon. Corner Shot removes the need for this initial exposure.
