

Desiree's Hope

Desiree's Hope follows Victoria's journey through life, love, and letting go as she faces the shocking discovery of an unwanted pregnancy.

GUADALAJARA, JA, MEXICO, November 25, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "Their competitive spirits were second nature. Even though they had a close bond, they always enjoyed pushing one another to the limits, for competition seemed to surface anytime they engaged in any activity, they always enjoyed talking about their successes and failures afterward."— Excerpt from Desiree's Hope by Gwendolyn H. Wilkinson.

Author Gwendolyn H. Wilkinson will be one of the featured authors in the upcoming Guadalajara International Book Fair 2021 with her published book title, Desiree's Hope. The novel enlightens us to an elegant lady Victoria Southworth, who wants an abundant lifestyle of the wealthy, the beautiful face that makes everyone stop, a successful husband, and the career of her dreams. However, problems arose when the shocking news of an unwanted pregnancy happened. Unaware, a Christian nurse named Hope has saved the child, altering Victoria's course even more than she could have ever imagined.

Gwendolyn Wilkinson

The book depicts different opposing views of abortion, the Christian understanding, and the viewpoint of the world. Through the flow of the story, you will encounter this reality, along with the transformative charm, saving, and mercy found in Jesus Christ. Born and raised in New Braunfels, Texas, Gwendolyn Wilkinson attended and graduated from Texas State University earning her Bachelor's Degree in Journalism and her Master's Degree in English. She had a thirty-two-year career as an English professor at several major Texas universities and retired in the profession in 2020.

She currently resides in Bryan, Texas. Her love for Christ and desire to tell others of His love is a constant pursuit of hers. She strongly believes that because of Christ's saving power, love, and His grace, she has become the person she is today.
