Pet furniture have witnessed higher rate of penetration in North America and Europe. However, low availability has been observed for these products in some major parts of Asia-Pacific and LAMEA, which is attributable to low performing macro-economic factors such as internet penetration and aggressive marketing strategies by the manufacturers. Thus, lower penetration of such products limits the pet furniture market growth.

For the purpose of pet furniture market analysis, the market is segmented into Houses, Beds & Sofas and Trees & Condos on the basis of product type. Among the three types, Houses accounted for a larger share of around 47.5% of the overall market in 2019. Also Houses segment is expected to capture a larger market share in 2027, owing to increase in demand for wide range of varieties. This pet furniture market segment is anticipated to witness faster growth in developed economies, and would account for 46.1% of the overall market by 2027.
