and Africa". - Amb. Otis T. Tarwoe

Jeff Marconette, Jr. of the United States, sponsored the Youth Add Value Award. Jeff was on hand to acknowledge Ambassador Otis and his positive contribution in creating an environment where young people's minds can expand for the positive. The award was presented by iChange Nations™ Special Envoy Dr. Ruben West.

Dr. Ruben West was appointed Special Envoy for iChange Nations™ by the organization's President and Founder Dr. Clyde Rivers. Dr. West carries out his global mandate by identifying deserving individuals and nominating them to the organization for award consideration.

Based on Dr. Clyde Rivers explanation, the goal of ICN is to honors people and organizations that believe every life is valuable and is created to contribute to the world. ICN is the largest "building cultures of honor" network in the world. iChange Nations™ is a Culture of Honor System; the organization is committed to bringing back the lost art of honor by building a Culture of Honor that recognizes individuals worldwide who have exemplified extraordinary humanitarian efforts to change nations effectively.

According to Dr. West, Amb. Otis T.

Tarwoe dreamed go beyond his local community and he has. He has the vision to raise other young, emerging diplomats, ambassadors and leaders worldwide, and he has taken action on that vision. "Honoring Amb. Otis with such a prestigious iChange Nations™ award has been a high point while in Kenya." ~ Dr Ruben West
