

Great News for Travel Lovers Looking to do More on Their Travels

Travel lovers that want to do more during their India trip can now join the Srinagar Leh Manali motorcycle travel quest in 2022.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, U.S.A, April 1, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 212Quest announced today that the Srinagar Leh Manali guided motorcycle travel quest in India is open for participation to travel lovers from all over the world.

Part of the picturesque Himalayas Valley, the Srinagar Leh Manali road trip is a beauty that runs through the stunning Kashmir valley and radiant towns of Sonamarg and Drass. Here, the brown rolling mountains break into a mesmerizing burst of colors as participants race through the bright green village oasis, incredible frescoes, priceless thangkas, and take in the exquisite views of the century-old monasteries. And with this beauty comes the thrill of the 212quest 10-day Srinagar Leh Manali guided travel quest.

"212Quest is happy to announce this year's Srinagar Leh Manali travel quest that allows participants to engage in highly challenging but engaging treasure hunts throughout the trip," explains Avi, spokesman of 212Quest.

Participants will experience the true pleasure of roaring bikes on rugged landscapes, dangerous routes, snow-clad mountains, and endless highway stretch. They will hunt for clues, complete challenges, explore destinations and enjoy the cultural learning that comes with the travel quest.

Apart from the excitement and learning, participants will get a 100%, 50%, or 25% refund of their participatory fee when they come first place, second place, or third place in the quest.

Interested travelers can visit <https://212quest.com/> for more details about the guided motorcycle tour and participation requirements.
