We agonized about where to launch the tour, and while there were many worthy candidates, Nashville rose to the top. We simply can't wait for Music City to see this groundbreaking new production.”

Executive Producer of Magic Mike Live, Vincent Marini.

“With the new film and our new series Finding Magic Mike premiering on HBOMax in December, we decided this was the perfect time to bring our special brand of magic to cities across North America. We agonized for close to a year about where to launch the tour and while there were many worthy candidates, Nashville, Tennessee rose to the top. We simply can't wait for Music City to see this groundbreaking new production,” said Executive Producer, Vincent Marini.

Conceived and co-directed by Channing Tatum, Magic Mike Live is a thrilling, sexy, live dance and acrobatic spectacular based on the hit movies Magic Mike and Magic Mike XXL.

Magic Mike Live will begin its strictly limited run in a brand-new, custom-built venue in the heart of Nashville before heading to Miami in Fall of 2022 and then on to major cities throughout North America. Equal parts empowering and exhilarating, Magic Mike Live is one of the most unique, immersive live-entertainment experiences in the world.

While the production for the US Tour is all-new, Magic Mike Live has already wowed over 1,000,000 guests worldwide and has been a fixture on major television shows such as Ellen, The Today Show, This Is Us and The Late Show with James Cordon, in addition to inspiring a new television series on HBO MAX, Finding Magic Mike, which was filmed in Las Vegas over the summer and debuts on December 16.

Not only will the touring production incorporate all the best features of the other productions around the world, it will also perform in a one-of-a-kind pop-up venue that the Magic Mike Live team has dreamt up specifically for the tour. In cooperation with Het Spiegelpaleis in Belgium, the production has created the world's largest Spiegeltent, christened "The Arcadia." Named after the mythical utopia, The Arcadia is a beautiful, two story, fully customized, 600-seat venue with a glass lobby, custom bars and an indoor/outdoor lounge where every seat, every finish, every detail has been meticulously curated by Channing Tatum and the Magic Mike Live creative team.

The new tour will also feature a custom curated cocktail experience created in collaboration with Singani63 and academy award winning director Steven Soderbergh, director of Magic Mike. "The versatility of Singani63 allows us to create a cocktail experience that tracks with MAGIC MIKE LIVE as you watch it, so that your taste buds follow the story along with your eyeballs," said
