In each episode, brief backstories are provided which introduce the pieces performed and provide a historic reference of their importance to the Chopin legacy.

Since the launch of his successful Chopin CD entitled, Images of a Homeland, Marjan Kiepura now has a significant YouTube following. Mr. Kiepura comes from a distinguished musical family. His parents were the opera singers and movie stars Marta Eggerth and Jan Kiepura. The host and narrator, Jane Knox, is fluent in three languages and writes original material for programs and narrates concerts.
