Each holiday season, LIFE works with various organizations to give joy to those in need during such times. No family should ever go hungry, and the holidays are a great time to provide this necessity to those families.

“The holidays are a period that families rely the most on help from organizations like LIFE to get through these times, and we are beyond happy and blessed to be able to provide that help and put smiles on the faces of those that need it,” said Dr. Hany Saqr, CEO of LIFE.
