

Maggie O'Neill Joins the NAI Legacy Investment Team

Vice President - Investor Relations & Communications

MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA, USA, December 2, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NAI Legacy is pleased to announce that Maggie O'Neill has joined the NAI Legacy Investment team. Maggie's expertise in relationship building, information distribution, coordination of executive tasks, and attending conferences will make her a key addition to the NAI Legacy team. Her primary role will be to facilitate regular communication with key partners and investors, thereby strengthening NAI Legacy's connection to its increasing number of clients. Her experience in sales, as well as strong interpersonal skills, made her perfect for the position.

Maggie commented: "I am grateful and honored to be joining the NAI Legacy team. I look to bring my passion and a fresh approach to an already outstanding and successful team, and to continue the company's national expansion and growth."

Duane Lund, Chief Operating Officer, said "We're very pleased and fortunate to have Maggie join as a senior member of our investment team. She comes highly recommended by numerous industry professionals and we look forward to her contributions to NAI Legacy as we continue our national expansion of tax-efficient investment offerings."

Maggie previously held a position at The True Life Companies as Manager, Partner Relations & Communications. Maggie's education includes an Associate in Business from Arapahoe Community College, and she also studied at the University of Nevada and the University of Arkansas.
