

The Hill Selects Thomas Keller As Top Lobbyist

Thomas Keller, Managing Principal of Keller Partners & Company, was named to The Hill newspaper's coveted list of top lobbyists yesterday.

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, December 2, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Thomas Keller, Managing Principal of Keller Partners & Company, was named to The Hill newspaper's coveted list of top lobbyists yesterday. The annual list ranks policy experts, influencers and advocates that work in Washington including corporate lobbyists, association lobbyists, grassroots lobbyists, and lobbyists known as "hired guns." According to The Hill, "these are the people who stand out for delivering results for their clients in the halls of Congress and the administration."

Thomas Keller of Keller Partners & Company Named Top Lobbyist by The Hill

"I'm deeply honored and grateful to be on The Hill's top lobbyist list and in the company of such distinguished professionals. My firm works on behalf of wonderful clients including hospitals, universities, local governments, social service and faith-based organizations and international NGOs. They deserve a voice in Washington, so it's easy to be passionate with decision makers about the great work that they do. After all, these are public and private organizations that are serving others," Keller said.

The Hill describes those honored on the list as "key players" who "wielded their connections and knowledge most effectively for their clients" and that the list "highlights the broad range of talents needed to achieve success in the industry."
