Commonwealth Real Estate, a division of Commonwealth Realty Group, LLC, is proud to appoint seasoned real estate professional Susan Russo, as Regional Director. The addition marks the brokerage's continued commitment to development, growth, and delivering best-in-class real estate service.

Susan Russo

"I am truly honored to have been given this opportunity to work alongside the leadership team here at Commonwealth," Russo commented. "It is an exciting time to be joining this great company and brand as they continue with their impressive growth track and add cutting-edge programs and tools to their agent platform. I also look forward to partnering with the Sales Managers and supporting their vision and goals for their offices."

Russo brings an impressive combination of experience, knowledge, and success in the Northeast real estate market. Susan began her career as a sales associate and, after ten years, became a Sales Manager at Carlson GMAC. She then continued her career at Century 21 Commonwealth Real Estate (now Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Commonwealth Real Estate), where she led the #1 Century 21 Office in New England for over eight years.

For the past five years, Susan worked as a Senior Vice President with William Raveis Real Estate, where she managed the Boston & Greater Boston – North Regions.

"We are thrilled to welcome Susan back to the Commonwealth family," said George Patsio, Managing Partner. "Susan shares the same agent-centric beliefs that we do, that focus on providing sales associates with the very best tools, technology, coaching, and support to provide
