

Redivider Blockchain Appoints Miami Mayor Francis Suarez To Advisory Team

Political powerhouse and Bitcoin advocate Mayor Suarez joins other industry leaders to bring Bitcoin mining to US Opportunity Zones nationwide.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, December 3, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Redivider Blockchain today announced it has expanded its board of advisors, adding Mayor of Miami, Francis Suarez, a national political leader and blockchain technology advocate. The move comes as Redivider continues to secure locations throughout US Opportunity Zones to deploy Bitcoin mining data centers. Suarez will advise on strategy and insights on community development and Bitcoin adoption.

“There is no better ally for the mission of Redivider than Mayor Suarez.” said Tom Frazier, CEO of Redivider. “The Bitcoin community he is building in Miami is opening the eyes of governments everywhere. We believe his insights and our vertically integrated approach is the blueprint to keep the US at the forefront of Bitcoin innovation.”

Miami Mayor Francis Suarez is a cryptocurrency and blockchain champion, who has promoted the development of Miami as a cryptocurrency hub declaring Miami would give a bitcoin yield as a dividend to its residents through MiamiCoin. In 2021, Suarez was included in Fortune magazine's "World's 50 Greatest Leaders" list. Mayor Suarez is a registered Republican, but the office of the City of Miami Mayor
