Mark Mecum

emerging leader in person-centered behavioral health software solutions, announced today their corporate partnership with Ohio Children's Alliance, Ohio's premiere membership organization for community agencies who serve vulnerable children and families. This announcement comes as Opeeka continues to expand its presence throughout the United States with a mission to promote well-being for all and support person-centered care by helping youth and families in care easily communicate their story, circumstances, and progress.

Founded in 1973, Ohio Children's Alliance is Ohio's first statewide child advocacy organization. The Alliance applies the collective strength of its members to sustainably improve the provision of services to children, young adults, and families through policy advocacy, performance improvement, and member support.

"Opeeka is proud to be a part of the Ohio Children's Alliance and helping to support a system that is integrated, efficient, cost effective, and beneficial to vulnerable children and families throughout Ohio." said Opeeka CMO and Co-founder Ken Knecht.

"Opeeka has expertise in building care coordination systems that leverage CANS data and link providers, government, and other systems together. We are excited to have Opeeka as a partner of the Ohio Children's Alliance and I am really impressed with them." said Ohio Children's Alliance Chief Executive Officer Mark Mecum.
