

SplitSpot and Brook Furniture Rental Partner to Give Renters Easy Access to Furnished Apartments

The new partnership allows renters to explore furniture rental options with ease as they browse flexible apartment solutions

LAKE FOREST, IL, UNITED STATES, December 9, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SplitSpot, an online platform that aims to make leasing an apartment easier and more comfortable for renters and landlords alike, has announced its partnership with Brook Furniture Rental, a leading online service providing furniture, décor, and home essentials via its hassle-free rental model. The partnership gives renters the opportunity to easily furnish their new apartments with customized packages.

Stress-free and user-friendly, SplitSpot and Brook share a mission to streamline the experience of searching for—and furnishing—a place to live. Available in Boston, New York City, Washington D.C., and Seattle, SplitSpot offers apartments for every preference, from cost and location to size and amenities, and gives renters the ability to choose shorter-term leases instead of a traditional 12-month agreement. SplitSpot's easy-to-use platform features 3D virtual apartment tours and remote showings, and renters can even meet pre-vetted roommates before signing a lease.

We're in the same business of making life easier for renters.”

Renters who sign a lease through SplitSpot can now get access to Brook's wide selection of furniture to outfit their space item by item, room by room, or by entire apartment, with flexible leases spanning from one month to a year. Brook also offers free professional design service, white glove delivery, and assembly of all items.

“We’re in the same business of making life easier for renters,” says Julius Milani, Vice President, National Accounts at Brook Furniture Rental. “SplitSpot offers a model that makes it simple for renters to find accommodations and roommates, and Brook is here to help their renters build their ideal space.”

“Brook is a natural partner for SplitSpot, as we can now offer a convenient and hassle-free way for our renters to make their apartments truly feel like home,” says Ernesto Gaxha, co-founder of SplitSpot. “Furnishing a new apartment can feel overwhelming, but with Brook, our residents can eliminate that headache and focus on enjoying their new space.”
